Broadlands Theatre Group

BTG was founded in 1980 by Mel and Pete Sessions who trained as drama teachers at Central School of Speech and Drama in London.

Today, the group continues to be run by the couple with the support of a small committee of volunteers and a voting membership. Their daughters, Pip (a qualified teacher with an MA in Education) and Jo (who also trained in theatre skills at Central), lead the weekly term-time drama workshops and direct the group's regular theatrical productions.

BTG is 40 years old in 2020-2021!

Drama Workshops

Workshops for children and young people (from the age of 6 years) take place Wednesday evening during term-time in Filby Village Hall.

Workshop One 6-8 years 5pm

Workshop Two 9-11 years 6pm

Workshop Three 12+ 7pm

Adult Group 8.15pm

The cost of workshops will be £5.00 per session from September 2021 (payable in half-termly blocks).

Drama Productions

During the school summer holidays, members of the group take part in 'Drama Week', a week of rehearsals, set-building, costume-making, prop-making, music, lighting and sound culminating in performances at the end of the week. Although the cast are given their scripts in advance, there are no rehearsals before the week starts. The show evolves as ambitiously as time, talent and energy allow!

The group has also organised several community theatre projects over the years involving both children and adults from the local villages, often collaborating with local musicians and choirs.

From September 2021 a new, 'Production Group' will work on and rehearse a show over a term with a performance at the end of the term.
